

Adjectives -ed/ -ing

1. The kind gesture was really _____, and she was deeply _____ (touching, touched).
2. She felt _____ by the _____ noise in the dark (frightening, frightened).
3. After a long hike, I was completely _____, but the journey was _____ (exhausting, exhausted).
4. The circus show was _____, and the kids were _____ the whole time (entertaining, entertained).
5. The puzzle was _____, and I felt so _____ trying to solve it (frustrating, frustrated).
6. The results were _____, and we were all _____ (pleasing, pleased).
7. He was _____ by the _____ gift (surprising, surprised).
8. The magician's tricks were _____, and the audience looked _____ (fascinating, fascinated).
9. The view was absolutely _____, and I was _____ by its beauty (stunning, stunned).
10. The exam results were _____, and the students were _____ about their grades (worrying, worried).
11. The roller coaster was _____, and I was completely _____ (thrilling, thrilled).
12. The soft blanket was _____, and I felt so _____ (comforting, comforted).
13. After a long discussion, she was finally _____ by his _____ argument (convincing, convinced).
14. Learning a new language is _____, but I feel really _____ in a good way (challenging, challenged).
15. He was _____ because the game was truly _____ (exciting, excited).
16. She was _____ by the loud music because it was so _____ (annoying, annoyed).
17. The speech was _____, and I was deeply _____ (moving, moved).
18. The long day was _____, and I felt extremely _____ (tiring, tired).
19. The rotten food smelled _____, and I was completely _____ (disgusting, disgusted).
20. The constant interruptions were _____, which made me feel really _____ (bothering, bothered).
21. He looked _____ because the movie was _____ (bored, boring).
22. That horror movie was really _____, and I felt _____ after watching it (disturbing, disturbed).
23. The rainy weather was _____, and it made me feel _____ (depressing, depressed).
24. The unexpected news was _____, and everyone was _____ (shocking, shocked).
25. The instructions were _____, so I ended up feeling _____ (confusing, confused).
26. The comedian was really _____, so everyone in the audience felt _____ (amusing, amused).
27. He was _____ because the ending of the book was so _____ (disappointing, disappointed).
28. She was _____ by his _____ story (inspiring, inspired).
29. The horror movie was _____, and I felt _____ the whole time (terrifying, terrified).
30. The amount of work was _____, and I felt completely _____ (overwhelming, overwhelmed).