My Last Weekend

Last weekend, I woke up early on Saturday because I wanted to do something different. First, I made breakfast and ate some pancakes with fruit. Then, I called my best friend and asked if he wanted to go on a trip. He agreed, so we packed our bags and drove to a nearby town.

On the way, we saw a beautiful lake, so we stopped to take pictures. The sun shone brightly, and we felt excited. After that, we continued our journey and arrived at the town around noon. We walked through the streets, visited small shops, and bought some souvenirs.

For lunch, we chose a cozy restaurant and ordered traditional food. The waiter brought our dishes quickly, and everything tasted delicious. After eating, we sat in a park and watched people passing by. Then, we decided to explore a historical museum. We learned a lot about the town's history and took many photos.
