★ Teacher's Tip

A good way to improve your grammar and vocabulary is to read regularly. Reading articles from newspapers and magazines can also help you to come up with ideas quickly in the real test.

► Exercise 2 (IELTS Speaking - Part 3)

Fill the spaces in the following answers with more/most, fewer/fewest, or less/least.

A. How could environmental problems be solved?

Actually, I think (1) _____ pollution is caused by private vehicles, so if we could encourage people to use their cars (2) _____, that would be the best way. Another idea would be to encourage (3) _____ companies to let their employees work from home. If (4) _____ employers allowed telecommuting, it would mean (5) _____ cars on the roads.

B. Some people think the best way to improve the economy would be to create more jobs. What do you think about that idea?

I'm not sure that I totally agree with that. I mean, if the government had to pay (1) _____ wages to people, then citizens would need to pay (2) _____ tax. Then they would have (3) _____ money to spend in shops and that would cause (4) _____ problems. Personally, I suspect that the best way would be to increase salaries. (5) _____ people nowadays get very low wages. If (6) _____ people were on low wages, and the (7) _____ well-off paid less tax, then businesses would make (8) _____ profits.
