Young people talk about sports

Jack

Jack loves football. He watches his favorite team play every Saturday. The stadium is big and very noisy with many people. His team is famous and the second-best in the country. Sometimes they play in another city, so he travels by coach. He never travels alone because his brother goes with him. Jack wants to be a football player after school.

Edward

Edward plays cricket for his village club every Saturday in the summer. His team plays against teams from other villages and towns. Some matches are very long, up to 6 hours. He likes cricket because it is slow and quiet. When it rains, he plays cricket on the computer at his friend's house. He loves cricket a lot. Last year, he went to India with two friends to watch the World Cricket Games.

Phil

Phil's favourite sport is tennis. He watches all the big games on television. He never goes to watch a game outside his city. He might watch a tennis match if it's near to his house. Every Tuesday and Thursday he plays tennis at school with his friends. Next week he will start having classes with a tennis coach because he wants to play better than his friends.
