

RA1-Reading Worksheet

Content: abilities with can and can't

Part A

Instructions: Read the given text and answer the following questions accordingly.

My name is Roger, and I am a mechanic. I can fix cars when they have problems. I can change tires when they are old. I can check the engine to make sure it works well. I can clean car parts to keep them in good condition. I can use tools to repair different parts of the car.

However, I can't paint cars because that is not my job. I can't work without my tools because they are very important. I can't repair a car if I don't check the problem first. I can't drive a customer's car without permission. I can't forget to wear my safety gear because it protects me.

1. Can Roger fix cars when they have problems?
2. Can he change tires when they are old?
3. Can he paint cars at the workshop?
4. Can he work without tools?
5. Can he drive a customer's car without permission?

Part B

Instructions: Listen and complete.

I am a mechanic. I can _____ cars to find problems. I _____ replace old tires with new ones. I can _____ the battery to make sure it works. I _____ tighten loose bolts to keep the car safe. I can _____ the brakes so they work properly.

However, I _____ design new car models because that is an engineer's job. I can't _____ a car without the right tools. I _____ ignore safety rules because they protect me. I can't _____ my work, or the car might not be safe. I _____ leave a car unfinished before checking everything.

