Exercise 5

Steps in Sequence

Now listen to instructions given to navy personnel who are arriving on base for the first time. Before you begin, look at the statements in your book. As you listen, number the statements in the order in which you hear them.

_____ Make a reservation at the BOQ.

_____ Report to the PSD.

_____ Go to the Pass and Tag office to get a Department of Defense sticker or decal for your car.

_____ Stop at the Quarterdeck to have your orders endorsed.

_____ Get a 24-hour parking pass from base security.

Exercise 6

Listening for Specific Facts

Now listen again. This time, listen for specific information and answer the questions below. Read the questions before you listen so that you will know what you are listening for.

1. Who is the person who endorses your orders at the Quarterdeck?
2. What are the hours of the Quarterdeck?
3. When is the Pass and Tag office open?
4. Where is the Personnel Support Detachment located?
5. Where is the BOQ located?
6. What documents do you need to bring to get a vehicle sticker or decal so that you can drive on base?

Exercise 7

Listening for Names

The last selection you will hear gives you some information about Air Operations at Oceana Naval Air Station. As you listen, check the blanks next to the names of specific titles such as naval aircraft, types of units, geographical locations, and other specific titles that you hear. Look over the list before you listen so that you will know what to listen for.

1. _____Air Operations
2. _____Norfolk
3. _____Atlantic
4. _____F-14 fighter squadrons

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. _____A-6E Intruder
6. _____F/A-18 Hornet
7. _____Fighter Composite Squadron Seven
8. _____Tomcat
9. _____Search and Rescue
10. _____Sea Ranger Helicopter

Source: History of Naval Air Station Oceana. [Electronic edition.] Retrieved in February 1998 for the World Wide Web: http://oceana-navy.com/History.htm

LIVEWORKSHEETS