Unit 4: FOR A BETTER COMMUNITY

READING PASSAGE

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE COMMUNITY

Everyone can contribute to making their community a better place. Whether through volunteering, helping those in need, or simply being kind to others, small actions can have a big impact.

Take Linh, a high school student, for example. Every weekend, she volunteers at a local shelter, where she helps prepare meals for homeless people. She believes that even a simple meal can bring warmth and hope to those struggling with difficulties. "At first, I thought I was just giving food," Linh says. "But then I realized I was also giving them a sense of care and respect."

Meanwhile, Minh and his friends organize free English classes for underprivileged children. They believe that education is the key to a better future. "Many children in my neighborhood cannot afford extra classes," Minh explains. "By teaching them, we hope to give them more opportunities in life." Their efforts have inspired other students to join the program and expand it to more areas.

In another part of the city, a group of volunteers has started a project called "Green Streets." They plant trees, clean up public spaces, and encourage people to reduce plastic waste. Their work has made the neighborhood cleaner and more beautiful. "We want to show that everyone can help protect the environment," says Mai, one of the project's leaders.

These stories prove that anyone, regardless of age, can make a difference. By taking action, we can create a better community and inspire others to do the same. What about you? What can you do to help your community?
