Present perfect and present perfect continuous

A Complete each sentence. Circle the correct answer.

1. The game has been going on for an hour. The score is 4–4 / was 8–6.
2. The game has ended. The score is 4–4 / was 8–6.
3. They've played soccer every day this week / since 11:00 this morning.
4. I've been taking tennis lessons for about a year / last year.
5. I've been drinking four cups of coffee today / every day for a while now.
6. Our team has been playing two games / for almost an hour.
7. Have you been learning to code for a long time / yesterday?
8. I'm pretty sure she's been visiting the office in April / often, but you can ask her.

B Write questions. Use the present perfect or the present perfect continuous and the words in parentheses.

1. How many _____? (times / you / exercise / this week)
2. How long _____? (you / study / at this school)
3. How many _____? (times / you / go / to the doctor / so far this year)
4. How much _____? (water / you / drink / today)
5. How many _____? (colds / you / have / so far this year)
6. How long _____? (you / work / on this exercise)
7. How much _____? (money / we / spend / on childcare / this year)
8. How many _____? (slices of pizza / he / eat)

LIVEWORKSHEETS