WWI: From Patriotism to Nationalism

Multiple Choice

1. Patriotism was an influential propaganda tool used by the _____ Government because it was the catalyst for a movement of national _____.

2. Who quoted the phrase "Patriotism means to stand by the country. It does not mean to stand by the President."?
    a. Theodore Roosevelt
    b. George Washington
    c. Thomas Edison

3. At the start of the War, Britain's army was small and regular. It soon became necessary to mount recruitment _____.

4. Unfortunately as the war went on, patriotism began to _____ and the realities of war were becoming more evident, and people were starting to _____ what their country was telling them.

5. People saw the war as a case of who had the biggest guns and the best _____.

6. In August of 1914, the French used _____ against the Germans which then caused the Germans to use _____ to kill 140 British soldiers.

7. Warfare changed dramatically when _____ was introduced in 1917 causing large blisters, blindness, vomiting, and death.

8. How long did it take to die from mustard gas?
    a. 5 days
    b. 5 weeks
    c. 5 months

9. While people were dying every day, the government changed tactics and instead of patriotism, they started to use _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS