

Past Perfect - He had finished the job when they arrived.
Present Perfect - She has worked here since she graduated.
Future Perfect - They will have returned home by 6pm.

1. We had problems with this supplier. We sure recommend them.
2. By the time we arrived, the presentation about e-commerce had started.
3. She has been on business to five different countries this year.
4. Hopefully by next year, they will have 10 to 15%.
5. My boss had when I got to the office.
6. We have business for more than ten years.
7. By the time you start the meeting, I will have finished with my work.
8. The sales rep had the new system before she told us the price.
9. They have been there quite a few times since it is right in front of their office.
10. By 2050, scientists will have major advancements in A.I. and medicine.
11. She had to London before BP acquired her company.
12. He had his assignment today.
13. When we arrived at the fair, the forum about ESG had started.
14. By the end of this month, the company will have moved to the new building.
15. I had good news from the client concerning the contract.
16. By the time you arrive, we will be cooking dinner.
17. She had to hire the manager even before the interview ended.
18. We have been to the office building a few times, so we know how to get there.