

Grammar in context

Choose the correct word or phrase to complete the sentence. Then find them in the short messages on page 49 and check your answers.

- 1 Lots / Lot of books for kids.
- 2 Here are a little / a few photos I took.
- 3 I've got some / much ideas for our history project.
- 4 Do you have many / any free time ...?

REMEMBER

We use quantifiers to talk about quantities and amounts.

- We use some with countable and uncountable nouns, in positive sentences:
I have some photos from the trip.
- We use any with countable and uncountable nouns, in negative sentences and questions:
There isn't any information on this site. Are there any apps you use every day?
- We use (not) much with uncountable nouns and (not) many with countable nouns, in negative sentences and questions:
I don't listen to much music online. Are there many landlines in your country?
- We use a lot of / lots of to talk about a large quantity:
I have a lot of apps on my phone.
- We also use a few or a little to talk about a small number or quantity:
We have a few computers in our classroom. (= not many)
She has a little free time later. (= not much)

2 Complete the text about a school project. Choose the best answer (A, B or C).

(1) ___ of teachers think that speaking to students in different countries is important, so (2) ___ young people have pen friends in other countries. It's a great way to learn about how other people live. Our teacher wanted our class to speak online to children in Ghana. (3) ___ of students said 'yes' to the idea. We don't know (4) ___ children in Africa, so it's very interesting.

Now we regularly speak to students in Ghana online. Once every two weeks, we turn on the screen in our classroom and have a video chat with a school in Accra.

At first, it was a bit difficult because (5) ___ students were speaking at the same time. But after (6) ___ conversations, we decided to write down (7) ___ questions in class before chatting. Now different students ask (8) ___ questions every week and everyone can hear them. It's interesting talking to our friends in Accra, and it's (9) ___ fun too.
