Group:

Word	Part of Speech	Definition and Synonyms
	noun	The main areas of a city where people live and work. (Synonyms: city hubs, downtown areas)
finance companies	noun
	adjective	Able to change or adapt easily. (Synonyms: adaptable, adjustable)
tram line	noun
cosmopolitan	adjective
service industries	noun
	noun	1. A city where a country's government is located. 2. Money used to start a business. (Synonyms: financial resources, funds)
high-speed train	noun
	noun	The basic systems and services a city needs, like roads and electricity. (Synonyms: facilities, systems)
unskilled workers	noun
	noun	Work that people do to earn money. (Synonyms: employment, occupations)
medical-technology	noun
	noun	People who have jobs that need special training or education. (Synonyms: experts, specialists)
European Union	noun
amenities	noun
	noun	Extra time worked beyond normal hours. (Synonyms: extra hours, additional time)
middle-age	noun
	noun	A school where people go to study after high school. (Synonyms: college, higher education)

LIVEWORKSHEETS