

A screenshot of a Google search page. The search bar contains the text "how to take a screenshot on windows 10". Below the search bar, there are two search results. The first result is from "ghacks.net" and shows a keyboard with a red box around the "Print Screen" key. The second result is from "matrixwarehouse.co.za" and shows a keyboard with red arrows pointing to the "Windows" and "Print Screen" keys. To the right of the search results, there is a video thumbnail showing a keyboard with red arrows pointing to the "Windows" and "Print Screen" keys. The video title is "How to take a screenshot on Windows 10 on yo..." and it is from the channel "Matrix Warehouse".
