

Paper, Paper, and More Paper!

Translate these words into your native language:

drive _____ married _____ travel _____ citizen _____

In the U.S., you must have papers for almost everything.

You must have papers to drive a car. You must have papers to get married.

You must have papers to travel.

If you are not a citizen, you must have papers to live in the U.S.

Important papers are called documents.

If you live here, but do not have papers, you are called “undocumented.”

What does undocumented mean? _____

If you want to live here for a short time, you need a Visa.

If you want to live here always, you need a Green Card.

Another name for Green Card is “permanent resident card.”

Translate “permanent resident” into your native language. _____

Here is a permanent resident card. What color is it? _____

It tells personal information (information about a person.)

What is the person's first name? _____

What is the person's last name? _____ (surname)

What is this person's sex? _____

What is her native country? _____

Where does she live now? _____

When is her birthday? _____

When did she become a resident (move to the U.S.)? _____

“Expires” means ends or dies. When does this card expire? _____

Here is a Visa. Tell 2 ways it looks different from a Permanent Resident Card. _____

Now make a Card for you.

 RL 2	Last name
	First Name	#987654321
	Birth Date	Date Issued
	Nationality	Expiration Date
	Sex	