

CANADA – fill in 1-3 words

Canada is the largest country by land in the world. It's nickname is The and the impression of Canada is summarized in the expression Unity in Diversity.

The national symbol Canadian also appears on the flag. This national symbol comes from times when the sap was gathered every spring. The national is called O Canada.

Canada is divided into 10and 3 The capital city is and the largest city is

As far as landscape is concerned we mustn't forget to mention The Lakes in the southeast and mountains in the west. The highest peak called is situated in Yukon territory in the northwest.

The density of population is low. There are 32 million inhabitants mostly settled along the southern boarder with the These inhabitants recognize the official head of Canada who is She is represented by the whose name is Julie Payette. The federal parliament consists of House of Commons and the Senate. Each province and territory has its own

Official languages in Canada are and The original inhabitants are called

Canadian wildlife is rich. Among the animals which can be glimpsed belong the national animal which is and others such as moose and bears.

Typical Canadian sports are ice hockey for winter and for summer.