

METROPOLITAN AREAS IN COLOMBIA

1. Drag and drop. Locate the metropolitan areas of Colombia on the map.

2. Read and select True or False.

- A metropolitan area has a big city and nearby towns.
 True False
- People in a metropolitan area share buses, schools, and hospitals.
 True False
- Only people in the big city can use the metro or buses.
 True False
- Metropolitan areas do not help people.
 True False

3. Read and select the best answer for each question.

1. What is a metropolitan area?

- A) small village.
- B) A big city with nearby towns.
- C) A place with farms.

2. Why are metropolitan areas important?

- A) They help people travel and work.
- B) They stop people from moving.
- C) They make towns disappear.

3. What do people do in a metropolitan area?

- A) Live in a town and work in the city.
- B) Stay only in their town.
- C) Travel to another country every day.

4. Match each metropolitan area with its special characteristic.

Medellín

Many people live in nearby towns and work in Bogotá.

Bogotá

It is a major border city with Venezuela.

Calí

It is a big city for business and culture.

Barranquilla

It has got a big port and industries.

Cúcuta

People from nearby towns use Medellín's Metro to travel.