1. What does the Latin root "gener" mean?

   a) To carry

   b) To produce

   c) To harden

   d) To throw

2. Which of the following words is derived from the Latin root "port"?

   a) Generate

   b) Import

   c) Endure

   d) Project

3. What does the Latin root "dur" mean?

   a) To produce

   b) To carry

   c) To harden

   d) To throw

4. Which word means "to throw" based on its Latin root?

   a) Generate

   b) Import

   c) Project

   d) Endure

5. If something is "enduring," what quality does it have?

   a) It is easily broken.

   b) It is hard and lasting.

   c) It is constantly changing.

   d) It is lightweight.

6. What does the word "regeneration" mean based on its Latin root?

   a) To carry again

   b) To produce again

   c) To harden again

   d) To throw again

7. Which of the following is NOT related to the Latin root "ject"?

   a) Project

   b) Reject

   c) Inject

   d) Import

8. What does a "porter" do based on the Latin root "port"?

   a) Produces goods

   b) Carries goods

   c) Hardens materials

   d) Throws objects

9. What does "reject" mean based on its Latin root?

   a) To carry back

   b) To produce again

   c) To throw back

   d) To harden again

10. Which word means "to produce" based on its Latin root?

    a) Generate

    b) Import

    c) Endure

    d) Project