

LIVE WORKSHEET

TOPIC: Commercial Art Passage

Instructions: Drag the correct word from the box to fill in the correct blank space.
(1 pt. each)

A word cloud of terms related to the design process, including: refine, evaluate, two, process, sketches, select, made, problem, commercial, and branches.

All around us in every day life, we see objects that have been _____ by people. Most of these objects started as a drawing or painting that were done by a _____ artist. The design was then copied multiple times, usually in a factory or office. Fashion Design, Architecture and Landscaping are all _____ of commercial art. Commercial Art is divided into _____ categories: Graphic Design and Product/Industrial Design. Commercial artist have to solve problems such as what will the item look like or what materials will be used. These questions can be answered using a series of steps called the design _____. The first stage in the design process is to identify the _____. Next, some _____ of ideas should be made then research and development is done to _____ the best idea. The fifth step in the design process is to _____ the design. This simply means that the chosen design must be tidied up and improved. The final step is to _____ your design. In this stage, you are deciding how effective your design was at solving the problem in step one.

N. Smith, 11th March, 2021