Read the conversation. Write the highlighted words under the two cars.

Salesman Is the car for you, sir?
Man No, it's for my mother.
Woman Yes, it's for me.
Salesman For you, madam? Well, what about this blue car here? It's small and it's easy to park.
Man Yes, Mum, it's perfect for you.
Woman But it's very slow. And it's ugly.
Salesman It's an electric car, madam. Very eco-friendly. They're good cars.
Woman I prefer...this red car.
Man But Mum, it's a sports car! It's very fast. And it's very expensive.
Woman Yes, but it's my money. It's a beautiful car and I love it! How much is it?
Salesman Come with me, madam.
Man Mum! ...

With a partner, talk about your car or your family's car.

(My car is a Peugeot 208. It's French. It's small and it's green. It isn't very fast.)

THANK
