

CIRCULATORY SYSTEM

The heart pumps blood around your body.

Blood goes around your body to give you oxygen and nutrients. Blood travels through arteries.

Arteries take blood away from the heart to all parts of the body.

Veins take blood back to the heart. This blood carries waste products.

