

The Pastry War Quiz

Write I for TRUE or F for FALSE to each statement.

- 1.- The conflict was between U.S., Mexico, and France.
- 2.- The Pastry War started on November 1838 and ended on March 1839.
- 3.- According to the video: another reason of this conflict was because Mexico owed money to France.
- 4.- In the town of Tacubaya near Mexico City, a French Pastry cook claimed that his dough was stolen.
- 5.- This French pastry cook went to look for help with the French Ambassador and he found a solution.

- 6.- French Admiral Charles Baudin made a plan to blockade all the Mexican ports in hope to get Mexico to pay off their debts.
- 7.- The French Fleet sailed into Mexico's principal port on december 17th 1983.
- 8.- The French Fleet attacked San Juan de Ulúa on April 6th, 1838.
- 9.- They ended the war by signing the Treaty of Vergara on December 1940.
- 10.- The treaty stipulated that Mexico would pay $100,00 pesos to France as indemnity.