

Present Perfect Tense

A Present Perfect Tense is a verb form that expresses certain actions taken place for once or more than once, just a few moments ago.

Subject + have/has + verb (v3) + object

He has completed the mission.

Subject + have/has + not + verb (v3) + object

He has not completed the mission.

have/has + subject + verb (v3) + object + ?

Has he completed the mission?

www.onlymyenglish.com

Put the verbs in brackets into Present Perfect form:

1. My dog my sandwich (EAT).
2. Helen her bag (LOSE).
3. I'm sorry that I your pen (TAKE).
4. Where's my dictionary? I it with me (BRING).
5. We're too late. The programme (FINISH).
6. Tina isn't here. She out (GO).
7. The police are outside. Something awful (HAPPEN).
8. I your book. Here it is (FIND).
9. Jack five letters (WRITE).
10. I some new shoes. Would you like to see them?
(BUY)
11. Kate and Bill a new flat. (FIND)
12. Maria and Helen at the new school.
(START)