

An invitation

I can write an invitation.

1. Watch a video and complete it with the given words.

beautiful | hire – fire | import – export | love | dinner | come over | bring excellent | wonderful | absolutely | anything | take care of | invite | free | weekend

Tony: So how do you like working at Global Exports?

Mindy: It's great Tony. Thanks again for _____ me.

Tony: I was wondering, would you like to _____ for dinner sometime? I want you to meet my family.

Mindy: That sounds great Tony.

Tony: How about this _____? Are you _____ on Sunday?

Mindy: _____! What time?

Tony: Is five o'clock okay?

Mindy: That sounds wonderful.

Tony: Do you like _____ food?

Mindy: Yes, I love it.

Tony: Great, let's have Mexican!

Mindy: Sounds great! Should I _____ anything?

Tony: No, we will _____ of everything.

Mindy: Thank you so much for _____ me.

2. Read the examples of invitations then write your own invitation.

Dear Martha,

Our exams finish at the end of June and I'm having a party to celebrate. It's at the village hall here in Greenwood. I'm inviting everyone in our school year. I'm organising the music, but everyone has to bring something to eat and drink. Can you bring some fruit – maybe some grapes or strawberries?

Hope you can make it.

Love,

Kaylee

Hi Denise,

I'm planning a sleepover at my house on Saturday 18 January. Can you come? I'm inviting Laura too, so it should be great fun. Can you please bring some DVDs? I know you've got some good horror and sci-fi movies. My DVDs are all really old!

Come about 6 and you can eat with us too, if you like.

Hope you can come. Let me know!

Take care,

Lisa :)

1 What is the event? Why are you holding it?

2 When and where is the event?

3 What should the person do or bring?
