

My last weekend

Last weekend, Tom and his family had an amazing time. On Saturday morning, they woke up early and went to the zoo. Tom was very excited because he loves animals. They saw lions, elephants, and giraffes. After lunch, they went to a park to play. Tom and his sister, Emily, played basketball while their parents relaxed on the benches. Later, they went to a local café for some ice cream. Tom chose chocolate, and Emily chose strawberry. They stayed there for a while, talking and laughing.

In the afternoon, they decided to go to the beach. They arrived just in time for the sunset, which was beautiful. Tom and Emily ran along the shore, collecting seashells. Their parents sat on the sand, enjoying the peaceful atmosphere. It was a perfect day.

On Sunday, they visited a nearby mountain. They hiked for hours and saw incredible views. Tom was tired, but he didn't mind because he loved nature. In the evening, they returned home and had a family dinner. Tom felt happy because he had spent a wonderful weekend with his family.