

About the train

Albert: So Bob, do you take the train often?

Bob: Yes, Al. _____ everyday.

Albert: Almost everyday? That's a lot.

Bob: Well I enjoy the train. It's very _____.

Albert: I see.

Bob: And it's the fastest way to travel across town.

Albert: Are there many people on the train during the _____?

Bob: Well, there are many people in the morning before work. And there are many people in the evening after work.

Albert: What about other times?

Bob: At other times, no, not so many people.

Albert: And there is never a _____?

Bob: On the train? There's never any traffic jam.

Albert: That's good.

Bob: That's the fastest way to travel.

Albert: Yeah, you know. I think it's faster than _____.

Bob: And the train is not very expensive.

Albert: Hey, Bob. Look at that _____.

Bob: The university. Uh oh. We're waiting for the wrong train.

Albert: We're on the wrong _____, teacher?

Bob: Yes, we're on the wrong platform.

Albert: So, now, what do we do?

Bob: Well, we can take a taxi. Taxis are good.

Albert: Yes, taxis are good. Let's take a taxi. And we won't _____ our time waiting for the wrong train.
