I'm Patricia Nelson and this is my daily routine. I get up at 7 o'clock. I go to the bathroom and have a shower. Then I have breakfast in the kitchen. I really love cereal fruit and milk. I go to school by bus at quarter to eight. My lessons start at twenty past eight. I have lunch in the school canteen with my best morning friends, David and Emma, at quarter to one. School finishes at half past three and I go home. At home I have a snack and I play computer games. Then I do my homework in my bedroom. My grandmother prepares dinner. At seven o'clock my parents are at home and we have dinner together. After dinner, I watch TV with my parents and my grandmother reads her book. I go to bed at ten p.m

Indonesia sits on the Ring of Fire located in East Java, an area with some of the most active volcanoes in the world. Many of the country's volcanoes, such as Mount Merapi, are famous for their violent eruptions and their stunning, but dangerous beauty.

Mount Bromo is among the best known, thanks largely to its incredible views, particularly when seen standing over the caldera at sunrise. Bromo's peak was blown off in an eruption, and you can still see white smoke spewing from the mountain. The volcano is part of Bromo Tengger Semeru National Park, which also includes Mount Semeru, the highest peak in Java. The park is home to the Tengger people, isolated ethnic groups who trace their ancestry back to the ancient Majapahit Empire.
