

Vocabulary training

Natural World

Around Us

Match two halves of a sentence.

1. Tom gave his wife a bouquet of lavender

2. As soon as I touched the nettle,

3. Dew covered the meadow in tiny water droplets,

4. The valley stretched for miles between two towering mountains,

5. The beach was nearly empty at sunset,

6. Since the soil was too dry,

7. The stream's current was too strong,

8. Although the driftwood had been floating for weeks,

9. The pebble felt smooth in my hand,

10. When we reached the marsh,

11. The hedge surrounding the garden was trimmed neatly,

12. Oliver loved spring because that's when

13. Lucas carefully placed a carnation in a vase,

14. Isabella bought a beautiful orchid,

I felt a sharp sting on my fingers.

with a river flowing peacefully through its center.

so we had to find another place to cross safely.

knowing it would remind her of their honeymoon in Provence.

as the ocean waves had polished it over time.

but some wild ivy had started growing over it.

making the grass sparkle in the morning sunlight.

but she wasn't sure how to take care of it properly.

except for a few seagulls searching for food along the shore.

the cherry trees in his neighborhood blossom, making the streets look magical.

we decided to plant the daffodil bulbs in a shadier spot.

we saw a family of ducks swimming among the reeds.

it was still good enough to be used for fire.

knowing it was his mother's favorite flower.