

Vocabulary training

Natural World Around Us

Match two halves of a sentence.

1. Tom gave his wife a bouquet of lavender

I felt a sharp sting on my fingers.

2. As soon as I touched the nettle,

with a river flowing peacefully through its center.

3. Dew covered the meadow in tiny water droplets,

so we had to find another place to cross safely.

4. The valley stretched for miles between two towering mountains, knowing it would remind her of their honeymoon in Provence.

5. The beach was nearly empty at sunset,

as the ocean waves had polished it over time.

6. Since the soil was too dry,

but some wild ivy had started growing over it.

7. The stream's current was too strong,

making the grass sparkle in the morning sunlight.

8. Although the driftwood had been floating for weeks,

but she wasn't sure how to take care of it properly.

9. The pebble felt smooth in my hand, except for a few seagulls searching for food along the shore.

10. When we reached the marsh,

the cherry trees in his neighborhood blossom, making the streets look magical.

11. The hedge surrounding the garden was trimmed neatly,

we decided to plant the daffodil bulbs in a shadier spot.

12. Oliver loved spring because that's when we saw a family of ducks swimming among the reeds.

13. Lucas carefully placed a carnation in a vase,

it was still good enough to be used for fire.

14. Isabella bought a beautiful orchid,

knowing it was his mother's favorite flower.

