

Can you spot the difference between had better and should?

Complete these sentences to check your knowledge. Which sentences are advice and which ones are a warning? In which ones can you say "or else..."?

1. You _____ call your grandmother. She loves to hear from you.

advice / A warning

2. You _____ call grandma today. If you don't, she'll be really upset.

advice / A warning

3. I _____ bring my calculator to class, maths is getting difficult, it might help.

advice / A warning

4. I _____ bring my calculator to class, or else my teacher will get angry.

advice / A warning

5. _____ I take an umbrella? It looks like rain.

advice / A warning

6. You _____ take an umbrella. It's already raining outside!

advice / A warning

7. You _____ touch that wire. You could get electrocuted!

advice / A warning

8. We _____ leave now. The train is about to depart!

advice / A warning

9. You _____ do more exercise. It's good for your heart.

advice / A warning

10. You _____ leave now, or you'll miss your flight!

advice / A warning

11. You _____ apologize to your friend. You hurt his feelings.

advice / A warning

12. You _____ apologize to the teacher. If you don't, she'll call your parents.

advice / A warning