

Compound Words

Match the following compound words with their correct definitions.

The required hours during which employees must be at work.

Time spent working beyond normal working hours, often paid extra.

The right to take time off work each year, usually paid.

A system where employees can choose their working hours within agreed limits.

Time off given by law, often for specific reasons like illness or maternity.

Leave from work that is not paid by the employer.

When an employee is allowed to work from home instead of the office.

Leave granted to a father after the birth of a child.

Extra days off work granted beyond the standard holiday allowance.

Receiving the total amount of salary without any deductions.

Flexitime

Core hours

Overtime

Home-working

Annual leave

Additional leave

Statutory pay

Unpaid leave

Paternity leave

Full pay