

Compound Words

Match the following compound words with their correct definitions.

The required hours during which employees must be at work.

Flexitime

Time spent working beyond normal working hours, often paid extra.

Core hours

The right to take time off work each year, usually paid.

Overtime

A system where employees can choose their working hours within agreed limits.

Home-working

Time off given by law, often for specific reasons like illness or maternity.

Annual leave

Leave from work that is not paid by the employer.

Additional leave

When an employee is allowed to work from home instead of the office.

Statutory pay

Leave granted to a father after the birth of a child.

Unpaid leave

Extra days off work granted beyond the standard holiday allowance.

Paternity leave

Receiving the total amount of salary without any deductions.

Full pay