Rules at Green Valley School

Green Valley School has several important rules that all students must follow. First, students must wear a school uniform every day. They have to arrive at school before 7:45 AM. If they arrive late, they must report to the office before going to class.

During class, students must listen to the teacher and have to raise their hand before speaking. Cheating on tests is not allowed. If a student cheats, they must talk to the principal and their parents will be informed.

In the cafeteria, students must clean up their tables after eating. They have to throw away trash in the correct bins. Running in the hallways is not allowed, and students must walk quietly.

After school, students have to complete their homework before playing. They must return library books on time, or they will have to pay a fine.
