

ACTIVITY 1:

Fill in the blanks with the correct relative pronoun (who, which, that, whose).

- 1) The manager _____ gave the presentation was very persuasive.
- 2) We need to contact the supplier _____ products are delayed.
- 3) The report _____ was submitted last week contains crucial data.
- 4) The team member _____ is responsible for client relations will attend the meeting.
- 5) The new software _____ we implemented has improved our efficiency.
- 6) The company _____ CEO announced the merger is a global leader.

ACTIVITY 2:

Combine the two sentences into one using a defining relative clause.

- 1) "The proposal was approved. It was submitted by the marketing department."
- 2) "The client is very important. His company is expanding rapidly."
- 3) "The meeting was productive. It took place in the conference room."
- 4) "The consultant provided valuable insights. She has extensive experience in the industry."

