

RESPONDA LAS PREGUNTAS 16 A 20 DE ACUERDO CON EL EJEMPLO

Lea el texto y responda las preguntas.

En las preguntas 24 - 30 marque A, B o C en su hoja de respuestas.

THE GALAPAGOS ISLANDS

are located in the Pacific Ocean and are part of Ecuador. They are famous for their unique wildlife, including giant tortoises and marine iguanas. The islands were first discovered in 1535 by the Spanish. Today, they are a popular tourist destination, attracting visitors from all over the world.

THE MALDIVES

are a tropical paradise located in the Indian Ocean. They consist of 26 atolls and are known for their stunning coral reefs and luxury resorts. The Maldives were first settled by people from India and Sri Lanka over 2,000 years ago. Tourism is the main source of income for the Maldives.

THE FAROE ISLANDS

are located in the North Atlantic Ocean and are part of the Kingdom of Denmark. They are known for their rugged landscapes and bird-watching opportunities. The islands were first settled by Norsemen in the 9th century. Today, the Faroe Islands have a population of around 50,000 people, and fishing is a major industry.

Ejemplo:

0. Which islands are famous for their unique wildlife?

- A. The Galapagos Islands
- B. The Maldives
- C. The Faroe Islands

Respuesta:

0.

A

B

C

11. Which islands are known for their coral reefs and luxury resorts?

- A. The Galapagos Islands
- B. The Maldives
- C. The Faroe Islands

12. Which islands were first settled by Norsemen?

- A. The Galapagos Islands
- B. The Maldives
- C. The Faroe Islands

13. Which islands have a population of around 50,000 people?

- A. The Galapagos Islands
- B. The Maldives
- C. The Faroe Islands

14. Which islands are part of Ecuador?

- A. The Galapagos Islands
- B. The Maldives
- C. The Faroe Islands

15. Which islands are a popular tourist destination?

- A. The Galapagos Islands
- B. The Maldives
- C. The Faroe Islands

16. Which islands are known for their bird-watching opportunities?

- A. The Galapagos Islands
- B. The Maldives
- C. The Faroe Islands

17. Which islands were first discovered by the Spanish?

- A. The Galapagos Islands
- B. The Maldives
- C. The Faroe Islands