Put the verbs in brackets into either past continuous or past perfect.
Remember to put the adverbs (never, ever, even) between the two parts of the verb.

Then listen to see if you guessed right.

When he came from Mars the alien superstar [1] was writing (write) a new song
He said it wasn't hard, he always found the right chord on his old guitar and he played it with his heart

When he came to earth he [2]_____ (write) the verse for a new song
And as his ship came down it [3]_____ (make) a supernatural sound that I [4]_____ (never hear) before till now

Pre-chorus
His voice was celestial!
A real-life work of art
I wondered why he [5]_____ (come) from so afar
What was his desire?

Chorus
Alien superstar
He [6]_____ (perfect) his art
Alien superstar
Take me back to Mars when you depart

He said he [7]_____ (be cursed) and that he [8]_____ (have) problems with the words that he couldn't rhyme and that he [9]_____ (feel) so unsatisfied, it [10]_____ (leave) him traumatised

And he was so sad that I asked if I could lend a helping hand
So he asked if I [11]_____ (ever be) in a rock'n'roll band
I looked at him and said...

Pre-chorus & chorus

And so here I am on a spaceship and on my way to Mars
And before today
I [12]_____ (never even leave) the state
Now I'm flying through space

Chorus
