Modal Verbs → MUST, HAVE TO, and SHOULD

OBLIGATION it is obligatory	PROHIBITION it isn't allowed	NECESSITY it is/isn't necessary	ADVICE it is/isn't advisable must	mustn't can't	have/need to don't/doesn't have/need to	should shouldn't

A. Choose the correct option to complete the sentences.

- You _____ water these plants now. They _____ be exposed to the sun directly because they are here. Put them in another place.
- You don't eat enough vegetables. You _____ try to eat more because they are healthy.
- You _____ wear a seatbelt when you are driving a car, but you _____ wear a helmet on your head.
- You _____ be so lazy. Your sister is doing all the work. It isn't hers, so she _____ do it, but she wants to help you, so start working now!
- I have a lot of pending homework. I really _____ start working right now, so sorry I _____ answer now. Contact me later, please!
- Sorry to leave so early, but we really _____ go. We _____ drive to the airport to pick up my son in an hour.
- Lucia, you _____ never get in a stranger's car. You _____ always call me when you need to move around the city.
- I _____ buy some more lettuce for the salad, but there are enough tomatoes, so I _____ buy any more.
- You _____ understand this: You _____ smoke in a public building. Indeed, you _____ smoke at all. It's really bad for your health.
- Your English marks are really low. You _____ ask your teacher for help. Your grades _____ improve a bit. Make an effort, please.

LIVEWORKSHEETS