A bad day at work

My name's Frank and my job is painting things, usually houses. It can be a difficult job when the weather's cold or foggy, because I often have to work outside. Yesterday I went to paint a house for a woman called Mrs Hill, but when I arrived at the house there was no-one there. I decided to start painting because Mrs Hill wanted me to finish it in two days and that really wasn't enough time.

At midday I stopped for lunch and went to a litte café round the corner. I wanted a burger and chips. That's my favourite meal, but they didn't have it, so I had pizza with olives on top instead. It was delicious! I was eating it when a woman phoned me and asked, 'Where are you?' I answered 'I'm having my lunch!' I was surprised because she was very unfriendly and she didn't say she was pleased with my hard work.

At two o'clock I went back to the house but there was still no-one there! Then a woman appeared outside the house next door. She was waiting on a step there. She looked very angry so I asked 'What's the matter?'. She said 'I'm waiting for a man to paint my house. He's really late! He said he'd come this morning but he hasn't arrived yet.' 'What's your name?' I asked. 'Mrs Hill' she said! I was working at the wrong house! I quickly collected all my paint and brushes and disappeared!
