

happy	doing	growing	smile	doing
they	making	he	funny	upset
laughing	worried	spelling	frowning	surprised
whispering	shouting	coing	sad	clapping
drawing	learning	crying	grumpy	making

Alex: Hi Sofia! Look over there. What's that boy _____?

Sofia: Oh, hi Alex! He is _____ a plant in the garden. He looks very _____.
He's got a big _____ on his face!

Alex: That's nice. Look at those children! What are _____ doing in the classroom?

Sofia: They are _____ a robot. It has to be very _____ because they are all _____.

Alex: Hmm, interesting. And what's that girl doing at the table? She looks a bit _____.

Sofia: I think she is _____ maths. Maybe it's a difficult problem and she is _____.

Alex: Ah, I see. What about the group of kids near the blackboard?

Sofia: They are _____ words. One of them is _____ a word very quietly.

Alex: Look! That boy in the corner! What's _____ doing?

Sofia: He is _____ magic tricks! Wow! The other children are _____ because they are _____.

Alex: That's cool! And what are those girls doing with all the paper and colours?

Sofia: They are _____ cartoons, but something went wrong. They are _____ and they look very _____. I think they run out of crayons!

Alex: What's that girl doing with the big piece of cardboard?

Sofia: She is _____ a poster of a _____ old man _____ at some naughty boys.

Alex: Hey, look at us! What are we doing right now?

Sofia: We are _____ to play chess! I'm a bit _____ because it's my first time and I'm making a lot of mistakes.