

Vocabulary

1 ★ Do the crossword puzzle.

2 ★ Fill in: weird, old-fashioned, on board, bun, still, thought and look.

- The best way to see San Francisco is to jump a cable car and ride around the city.
- I had a(n) experience on the boat. I thought I saw a sea monster.
- Keep ! I want to take a photo of you next to that statue.
- She was so lost in that she missed her bus stop.
- The air hostess had a blue uniform on and wore her hair in a(n)
- In London, there are taxis from the 1940s.
- Jane gave me a puzzled when the tram stopped suddenly.

Grammar

3 ★ Make sentences using the words below. Use for or since and the present perfect.

- I/not have/a holiday/two years
- Andy/live/Brazil/2008
- It/not snow/in my town/a long time
- He/not travel/abroad/last summer
- I/be/in Venice/a few days now
- We/ not eat/out/months

4 ★ Underline the correct word.

- Helen has never/ever been to Italy.
- We have already/yet bought the plane tickets.
- Have you been on the sightseeing tour yet/just?
- Madeleine has since/just missed her flight.
- I haven't ridden a bike since/for I was a child.
- Have you since/ever been diving with sharks?
- I haven't been camping for/since three years.

5 ★ Put the verbs in brackets into the present perfect.

- A: (you/ever/be) camping?
B: Yes, but I (not/do) it for ages.
- A: Do you want to go skydiving?
B: Yes I do. I (never/try) skydiving before.
- A: I (just/receive) a postcard from Mary. She's in Hawaii.
B: Really? How long (she/be) there?
- A: (James and Lilly/arrive) in London yet?
B: I don't know, they (not/call) me.
- A: How's your trip? (you/do) anything interesting?
B: Well, we (fly) over the city in a helicopter and we (take) some amazing photos so far.
- A: I (not/book) our ferry tickets yet.
B: That's OK. I (ask) George to do it.

Means of transport

1 Label the pictures.

- aeroplane • train • scooter • boat • car • carriage • double-decker • ferry • bike
- helicopter • horse and carriage • hot-air balloon • lorry • motorbike • gondola • ship
- rickshaw • taxi • underground • van • tram • coach • canoe • quad bike • bus

Fill in the gaps using the following words: pointless, downside, traffic, journey, intimidating, overground, peak time.

Public transport in London is both convenient and efficient, but it can also feel a bit 1) _____ for newcomers. One of the most popular ways to get around is by using the Underground and 2) _____ trains. However, traveling during 3) _____ can be a real challenge, as the stations get crowded and trains are often packed. Taking a bus is another option, but it might not be the fastest way due to heavy 4) _____ on the roads. The main 5) _____ of public transport is that it can sometimes take longer than expected, turning a short 6) _____ into a lengthy trip. Walking might feel almost 7) _____ when the distance is too great, but it's still a good way to explore the city.