

Irregular Past Tense

Read the following text. Write the correct past tense verbs in the blank spaces. Use the word list to help you. You may need to use some of the words more than once.

On Saturday morning, I _____ (wake) up craving a hot breakfast. All I _____ (want) _____ (is) some bacon, eggs and toast. I _____ (go) to the fridge but _____ (find) there was nothing there! Time for a trip to the grocery store!

I _____ (take) off my pyjamas, _____ (throw) on some clothes and _____ (drive) to the nearest store. I _____ (park) the car, _____ (run) to the entrance and _____ (burst) through the doors.

I _____ (begin) to scan the aisles for what I needed. First, I _____ (go) to the cold section. It _____ (is) so cold my hands _____ (are) freezing. From the fridge, I _____ (choose) the biggest packet of bacon I could find and _____ (throw) it in my basket.

Next on the list _____ (is) bread. I _____ (begin) to walk towards the bakery section. I _____ (smell) the delicious scent of freshly baked bread. My stomach _____ (grumble). I _____ (get) some grain bread and put it in my basket.

My last item on the list _____ (is) eggs. I _____ (see) a sign saying 'local produce'. Under the sign _____ (are) some freshly _____ (lay) eggs. "These will be perfect for my big breakfast," I _____ (say) aloud to myself. Carefully, I _____ (take) the eggs from the shelf and placed them in the basket.

I _____ (think) about my shopping list and _____ (make) sure I had everything I needed for my morning feast. I _____ (know) that I had _____ (find) everything I needed so I _____ (take) my basket to the front counter and _____ (pay) for my items.

When I _____ (get) home, I _____ (cook) the bacon, eggs and toast and _____ (sit) at the kitchen table. I _____ (eat) my delicious meal and _____ (drink) some yummy orange juice to wash it all down.