How to Be a Responsible Student

Being a responsible student means following important rules every day. First, you must respect your teachers and classmates. This helps create a friendly and positive environment. You must complete your homework on time and study for exams to do well in school.
To stay healthy, you must eat nutritious food and drink enough water. You mustn't eat too much junk food because it is unhealthy. Also, you must get enough sleep at night so you can focus in class.
In school, you mustn't run in the hallways because it can cause accidents. You mustn't use your phone during lessons unless the teacher allows it. When crossing the street outside school, you must look both ways to stay safe.
Finally, you mustn't be rude to others. Always be polite and help your classmates when they need support. Being kind and responsible makes school a better place for everyone!
