

Chapter-5

The Internet

Section A: Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does "Internet" stand for?

- a) International Network
- b) Interconnected Network
- c) Network of Networks
- d) All of the above

2. Which of the following is NOT a use of the Internet?

- a) Sending and receiving messages
- b) Performing banking operations
- c) Cooking food
- d) Buying and selling goods

3. What is the full form of "URL"?

- a) Uniform Resource Locator
- b) Universal Resource Locator
- c) Uniform Resource Link
- d) Universal Resource Link

4. Which of the following is an example of a search engine?

- a) Google
- b) Microsoft Edge

- o c) BSNL
- o d) ARPANET

5. What is the purpose of a web browser?

- o a) To create web pages
- o b) To access and view web pages
- o c) To send emails
- o d) To manage Internet Service Providers (ISPs)

Section B: Fill in the Blanks

1. The Internet is a network of _____ that connects millions of computers worldwide.
2. The first network developed by the USA defense department was called _____.
3. A _____ is a collection of related web pages.
4. The _____ is the address of a web page that you type into a browser.
5. To search for information on the Internet, you use a _____.

Section C: True or False

1. True or False: The Internet was initially developed for military purposes.
2. True or False: A web page is created using a language called HTML.
3. True or False: Microsoft Edge is the only web browser available for Windows 10.

4. True or False: You can send attachments like pictures and documents through email.
5. True or False: It is safe to share personal information like your address and phone number on the Internet.