

JOBS IN THE FUTURE

Read the text and use the word in capitals to form a word that fits in each space.

In twenty years' time, which jobs will people still be doing, and which is it (1)_____ to assume will have gone forever? Today's young people should give that question careful (2)_____ before choosing a career. Clearly there will continue to be a need for staff in (3)_____ professions such as medicine that involves caring for others, and also for people able to persuade, like (4)_____ and lawyers.

There will of course be no (5)_____ of jobs in science and technology, particularly for individuals able to (6)_____ in newer fields such as biotechnology and microbiology.

On the other hand, the already rapid (7)_____ of jobs to robots will speed up even further, as they replace workers not only in manufacturing but also in the (8)_____ industry. And as robots learn how to stack shelves, take over at check'-outs or send us our online shopping. It won't be long before most supermarket jobs have (9)_____.
