

Owen and Chris are organizing a BBQ. Look at Owen's notes below and complete the dialogue with "Be going to" + Infinitive"

SCHOOL SUMMER BARBECUE
a)	buy the burgers and where from?
b)	ask people to make salads
c)	order bread rolls from the bakery
d)	collect the bread on the day
e)	get the sausages from Watsons
f)	start cooking at 7
g)	guests – arrive at 7:30
h)	clean up
i)	not me!

OWEN: I've got the notes from our meeting. Who (a) _____ is going to buy the burgers and where from?

CHRIS: I don't know. I (b) _____ people to make salads. Oh, and Phil (c) _____ bread rolls from the bakery.

OWEN: Great! Do you know who (d) _____ the bread on the day?

CHRIS: Er, no. Good point. I know Yolanda (e) _____ the sausages from Watsons because it's near her house.

OWEN: Fine. Now all of us (f) _____ cooking at seven, and the guests (g) _____ at half past.

CHRIS: Ok. And what about the mess afterwards? Who (h) _____ the next morning?

OWEN: Well, I've decided, it (i) _____ me.

Complete the sentences by matching 1-5 with a-e.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1) I'll call the restaurant | a) before your dad shows up. |
| 2) When you finish peeling the potatoes, | b) will you cut them into chips? |
| 3) He'll discuss the menu with his kitchen staff | c) when all the cousins come to dinner! |
| 4) There won't be any food left | d) will there still be fish in the sea? |
| 5) When you're old, | e) as soon as I find the number. |

Rewrite the correct alternative

- She / comes / will come / to your party if you / ask / will ask her.
- The post's arrived. Don't worry. I / get / 'll get it.
- When we see / 'll see him next time, we / tell / 'll him / the good news!
- Make the tea as soon as the water / boils / will boils.
- Careful with that pan of soup! You / burn / 'll burn yourself.

For each of the situations below, predict something that is going to or not going to happen

Example: Bob is going to take his driver's test tomorrow. He didn't practice.

Example: He's not going to get his license.

1. It's raining. George doesn't have an umbrella. _____
2. Andy has a very bad cold. _____
3. Nora didn't sleep well last night. _____
4. Phil loves movies. There is a new movie playing at the theater tonight. _____

5. Jan ate too much dessert last night and now she has a stomachache. _____
