

Instructions:

Read and change into Past Simple the verbs in parentheses.

Once upon a time, there _____ (be) a little girl named Mia. One sunny day, she _____ (walk) to the park. She was very happy because she _____ (want) to play with her friends. When she _____ (arrive), she _____ (see) her friends, and they all had fun together.

First, they decided to run around the big tree. Mia thought it was a great idea! They _____ (run) fast and _____ (jump) with joy. After that, they _____ (come) to a small pond. Mia _____ (see) some ducks that _____ (fly) over the water. She wanted to feed them, so she _____ (go) to her backpack and _____ (cook) some bread for the ducks.

Later, they _____ (play) games like tag and hide-and-seek. Mia _____ (do) her best to find her friends when they hid. Everyone laughed and _____ (have) a wonderful time. As the sun began to set, Mia _____ (think) about how much fun she had that day. She _____ (walk) home with a big smile, excited to tell her family about her adventures in the park.

And that was a perfect day for Mia!