

Exercise 1: Fill in the blanks with the correct form of "do" or "make."

1. We need to away with this old rule; it's causing too many problems.
2. I always my best to finish my homework on time.
3. During the summer, they a roaring trade in ice cream sales.
4. She a habit of arriving late to every meeting.
5. He no attempt to apologize for his mistake.
6. Let's some revision before the exam tomorrow.
7. I the most of my weekend by visiting friends and relaxing.
8. You should a point of arriving early to the interview.
9. They an effort to keep the house clean for the guests.
10. Smoking more harm than good to your health.

Exercise 2: Match the beginning of the sentence (1-8) with the correct ending (A-H) to form a complete collocation with "do" or "make."

1. I need to _____
2. She always tries to _____
3. They _____
4. He _____
5. We should _____
6. Let's _____
7. You _____
8. It's important to _____

- A. a roaring trade in handmade jewelry last Christmas.
- B. a point of being polite to everyone you meet.
- C. do your utmost to finish the project by Friday.
- D. make the most of this opportunity while it lasts.
- E. do some revision before the test next week.
- F. made an effort to improve her grades this semester.
- G. do your best on this difficult task.
- H. made no attempt to hide his disappointment.

Exercise 3: Choose the correct option to complete the sentence.

1. I always _____ a point of thanking people for their help.
 - a) do
 - b) make
 - c) did

2. They _____ a roaring trade in selling fresh vegetables at the market.
 - a) made
 - b) did
 - c) make

3. You should _____ your best to stay calm during the exam.
 - a) do
 - b) make
 - c) did

4. The company decided to _____ away with the old system.
 - a) make
 - b) do
 - c) made

5. She _____ no attempt to fix the broken chair.
 - a) did
 - b) made
 - c) does

Exercise 4. Rephrase each of the following sentences using the appropriate collocation or expression with “make” and “do”.

1. The company decided to eliminate the outdated policy.

The company decided to the outdated policy.

2. I always try hard to finish my assignments on time.

I always to finish my assignments on time.

3. During the festival, the vendors sold a lot of handmade crafts.

During the festival, the vendors in handmade crafts.

4. You should study your notes before the exam to prepare well.

You should before the exam to prepare well.

5. She tried as hard as she could to win the competition.

She to win the competition.

6. Drinking too much coffee can be more harmful than beneficial.

Drinking too much coffee can to your health.

7. If your brother studies every evening, you should do the same.

If your brother studies every evening, you should

8. He always ensures that he arrives early to meetings.

He arriving early to meetings.

9. I tried to enjoy my vacation as much as possible by exploring the city.

I my vacation by exploring the city.

10. She always tries to be kind to her neighbors.

She to be kind to her neighbors.

11. He didn't even try to solve the puzzle.

He to solve the puzzle.

12. We didn't have all the ingredients, so we had to use what we had.

We didn't have all the ingredients, so we had to what we had.

