

Ordering Adjectives

When writing a sentence with more than one adjective, we need to put the adjectives in a certain order. The way we order adjectives is called the Royal Order of Adjectives.

quantity - opinion - size - age - shape - colour - origin/material - qualifier

The adjectives in these sentences aren't ordered correctly. Can you fix them up?

1. Six, blue, old and red t-shirts

2. Australia is a big, cheerful, friendly country.

3. That orange, little, sweet lolly

4. The black and white, old, little, dog

5. I bought a winter, blue, new and fancy jumper.
