

1. What does Anansi love and what does he dislike?

- a) He loves cooking but dislikes eating.
- b) He loves a good meal but dislikes working.
- c) He loves working but dislikes food.
- d) He loves cooking and working.

2. How does Anansi trick the other animals into preparing food for him?

- a) He promises to cook for them.
- b) He offers to help but leaves before working.
- c) He trades food with them.
- d) He sneaks into their homes and steals food.

3. How do Rabbit, Tortoise, and Monkey react to Anansi's mooching?

- a) They happily cook for him without question.
- b) They invite him but cleverly give him work to do.
- c) They refuse to let him eat with them.
- d) They chase him away from their homes.

4. What did Anansi do to avoid helping with the cooking?

- a) He says he is too sick to work.
- b) He weaves silk loops around his legs and asks to be tugged when the food is ready.
- c) He hides outside until the meal is served.
- d) He distracts the animals while taking food from their pots.

5. If someone "insisted" on something, what did they do?

- a) Asked politely
- b) Gave up quickly
- c) want something strongly
- d) Forgot about it

6. He was _____ sad so he cannot do his homework.

- a) too
- b) two
- c) to

7. _____ car is very beautiful.

- a) There
- b) Their
- c) They are

8. What does the word "indescribable" mean?

- a) Easy to describe
- b) Not able to be described
- c) Very small
- d) Very large

9. The word comfortable means "capable of giving _____."

- a) light
- b) comfort
- c) food
- d) water

10. The word visible means "capable of being _____."

- a) seen
- b) eaten
- c) bent
- d) fixed

