

Insistent/Convenience/Gradually/Dedicate/Outbreak/Intend/Rebellion/Compete/
Obsessive/Attach/Resentful/Substantially

1. She decided to _____ her life to improving education for underprivileged children, believing that every child deserves a chance to succeed.
2. The government took immediate action after the _____ of the disease in the rural areas, imposing strict quarantine measures to prevent its spread.
3. Although he was _____ about being overlooked for the promotion, he managed to stay professional and continued to perform his duties effectively.
4. The new law will _____ alter the way small businesses operate, providing more opportunities for growth and reducing unnecessary regulations.
5. It is important to _____ great significance to the environmental impact of our decisions, as the consequences are far-reaching and affect future generations.
6. His _____ behavior towards perfectionism made it difficult for him to complete tasks on time, as he would constantly revise every detail to make sure it was flawless.
7. The group's _____ against the oppressive regime was met with force, but it sparked a movement that inspired people across the country to demand change.
8. The team's performance _____ improved over the course of the season, as they worked hard to overcome their weaknesses and develop stronger chemistry.
9. The company _____ to launch a new product line by the end of the year, aiming to capture a larger share of the market and increase its overall revenue.
10. In the highly competitive tech industry, companies must _____ with one another not only in terms of product quality but also in innovation and customer service.
11. Many people prefer online shopping for its _____ being able to order anything at any time without leaving their homes is a significant advantage in today's busy world.
12. Despite the _____ requests from her colleagues, she remained firm in her decision to leave the project, believing it was the best choice for her personal growth.