

Use Present Perfect Simple or Present Perfect Continuous.

1. A: How's he doing with his fitness routine?
B: He _____ (to run) every morning for the last month.
2. A: Does he like sushi?
B: I think so. He _____ (to eat) sushi four times this month.
3. A: Has Sarah called you?
B: Yes, she _____ (to call) me twice today.
4. A: Have you been working long hours?
B: Yes, we _____ (to work) late almost every night this month.
5. A: Let's watch that movie tonight!
B: Again? We _____ (to watch) it five times already!
6. A: Does she visit her grandmother often?
B: Yes, she _____ (to visit) her every weekend since last year.
7. A: Is that book any good?
B: I think so — I _____ (to read) it twice!
8. A: Are you still watching that show?
B: Yes, we _____ (to watch) it almost every night for the past few weeks.
9. A: Do you like that restaurant?
B: Yeah, we _____ (to be) there four times this year!
10. A: Has she visited her grandmother recently?
B: Yes, she _____ (to visit) her three times this month.
11. A: Is she still trying to get an appointment?
B: Yes, she _____ (to call) the doctor's office every hour since this morning.
12. A: Do you like to try new places?
B: Yes, we _____ (to try) different restaurants every weekend for the last few months.
13. A: Why do they keep playing that song?
B: They _____ (to play) the same song over and over again for the past hour.
14. A: Have you had meetings about this?
B: Yes, we _____ (to have) two meetings so far.
15. A: Is he a big fan of that show?
B: Definitely! He _____ (to watch) the final episode four times.